

YOUR TEAM

is a gift. Like a gift, you may not have asked for it. Even so, always show your appreciation for it.

Look. Listen. Experiment. Share your ideas, skills, and passion. Take risks, work, and be a friend.

Gifts are fun, so don't forget to play! But if you break it, do your best to fix it.

Sometimes the best gifts are those you didn't want. It may take time to see your gift's value.

Wait and keep an open mind, give it a chance.

The surprise is half the fun.
Enjoy what you discover
TOGETHER.
